Heart Shapes – February, 2017

The Shape of Purple – Lent – a season of reconciliation

In my freshman year of college, I attended a small, liberal arts school called Newberry College, Newberry, SC. It was a Lutheran supported school, known for its specialty in music and the arts. As a student, my work study assignments included both working in the library and singing in the chapel choir. Choir meant every Sunday morning attending the 10:00 AM service of worship. It also meant, NOT staying out too late on Saturday nights!

It was in the college chapel, I was first introduced to liturgical banners and colors which marked the changing of the seasons for the church year. In my early church life, I had never been introduced to the changing of the six seasons moving from Advent to Christmas to Epiphany, then Lent to Easter, followed by Pentecost Sunday and the many days of Ordinary time. I had never participated in the ‘punctuation’ days of Transfiguration Sunday, Ash Wednesday and Maundy Thursday with Tenebrae nor Trinity Sunday. Christmas was not a season of 12 days to savor, but only one day bursting open.

As I “worked” at attending worship, I developed an appreciation for the liturgical seasons. The ebb and flow of seasonal changes replicated the ebb and flow of a person’s individual faith life and a congregation’s community faith journey.

The church seasons where we have been enriches us individually but also our community of faith in the following ways:

The purple recently changed to blue hues of Advent helps us to anticipate and to prepare for the experience of New Beginnings. With each flicker of a candle flame, our hearts prepare for the hope, peace, joy, love that would come down at Christmas. Darkness is no more.

The white purity of Christmas gives way to rooting our belief in Christ, as we are challenged to face and release our fears of the past and celebrate in appreciation a new way of being.

Epiphany springs up as green for growing in Christ. With each bible story about Jesus, we claim and re-claim with new understanding the mission and ministry of Christ in the world. Our faith re-news and reflects who we are called to be – God’s people.

In a very few days, we will enter the next season of the church year – the Lenten season.

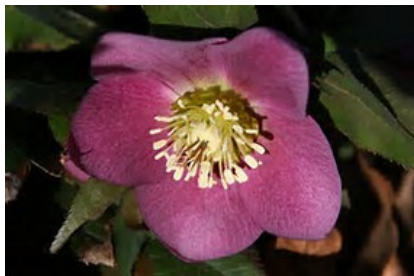

Lent – with the purple of passion and commitment, we find an invitation to be about listening and being as we respond in one voice to God’s tenderness. This is the season for the community of the church people to begin forty days of intention.

On “Fat Tuesday” February 28, (5:30 – 7:00 PM Pancake Supper) we will feast on Pancakes, sweet syrup and sides while bringing our financial donations for Relay for Life Cancer Event. This night of feasting and giving helps us to release and open for the next days of Lent.

Ash Wednesday (March 1, 6:30 PM Service) starts the journey of Lent. When ashes are marked in the shape of a cross, we begin the humble, courageous journey of “being” God’s people and not just “doing” good deeds. We are encouraged to model our participation during Lent as Jesus modeled for us: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. These participatory tools are meant to give renewed vitality to our personal acceptance of God and our communal reconciliation with God’s people, all of God’s people. On this part of the seasonal journey, we are not to give in to our fears and anxieties. We are to be humble and open in trust that God will expand our experiences of love, internally and externally. The things of the past; that which we hold fast to as security; the things that hinder our next steps forward; that which builds up walls of judgement without mercy; anything that keeps us separated from each other – can be released to make room for healing and for God.

The path is set before us for a new journey. The shape of purple is Lent. And Lent is reconciliation.

Peace for today,
Sheila

Property Committee

The Annex Garage’s siding has been completed. The committee is waiting on quotes for a garage door to complete the task.

Closets are being cleaned out and items to be donated are downstairs on the tables. If it belongs to your committee, please claim it.

The oil was changed in the bus prior to the Youth trip to Epworth. Remember to log all trips.

Disciple Women

The DW Spring Conference is planned for First Christian Church, Winder on March 25. Our group will provide breakfast items. If you would like to attend, Please contact Pam Crawford or Susan Hansford.

DW helped SOS (Support our Seniors) during February. The group collected shampoo, kleenex, lotion, and paper items.

Worship Committee

The Worship Committee has been busy planning for Lent, Easter, and Mother’s Day activities.

Ashford Memorial will no longer participate in the Easter Sunrise service. The Committee felt this was a wonderful community service and our church will continue with this program. Our church will also provide the breakfast after the sunrise service.

Youth

Our Youth (6th-12th grade) and leaders had a wonderful experience at Epworth-by-the-Sea February 3-5. The weekend was filled with worship, workshops, fellowship and fun.

Dear Friends and Members of FCCW:

Thank you, Thank you! Your leadership in generosity contributes to the longstanding success of our community of faith in being faithful witnesses for Jesus Christ. We are grateful for your deep commitment to the ministries of Good News through our congregation's work.

Jesus challenges his followers to be partners in the process of transformation to bring wholeness to a fragmented world that needs healing and joy. First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Watkinsville, strives to hear Jesus's call and meet the challenge of love to neighbor, as to self and by loving God first.

Because of your financial pledges, tithes, gifts, FCCW provided programs of learning, service to others, worship and fellowship for both inside the church building walls and outside in the local and global communities.

Here are some stories of care and love for FCCW members and friends:

Our Diaconate coordinated and provided meals for church members and friends families who had lost loved ones. They supplied meals, snack baskets, gift cards to those struggling with illness and surgery. They served at the table in remembrance of Christ and service to others.

Our children and teens found their spiritual creativity by working on prize-winning floats, learning about kindness and trust at youth groups, singing as a choir and playing handbells. The church supported their experience of faith and connection to others through the camps and Youth Assembly. Baptism following Pastor class was a special time of celebrating their journey of faith and their commitment to continue the journey.

Here are some stories of sharing and love for community members, local and global:

Week of Compassion offerings were sent through the Disciples of Christ denomination to places of disaster through flood and hurricane in the USA, bringing aid and support immediately to those who lost their homes and livelihood.

First Friday, a commitment of funds and volunteers, spreads the ministry of hospitality to the many children and families in our Oconee county community – seven times per year right here in our back yard in relationship with the business community. Each person who uses the playground experiences fun, safety and welcome provided by the church.

Both the Christian Men Fellowship and the Disciple Women groups give financially to organizations that change lives for the better.

These are just a few of the ways our congregation shared financial resources and gave of our time and talents. The Good News of Christ lives on through your faithful commitment to share willingly in love. You make a difference!! Thank you for being a partner in the ministry and mission of First Christian Church(DOC), Watkinsville!

May you and yours be blessed with health, safety and hope for the coming year as we listen to the call of Christ in our lives. Peace be with you.

Stewardship & Finance Committee.

Camp Christian Conference Center Gala and Auction!

You Shine on Me by Bill Hunt

When darkness falls, like a blanket
Any cloaks my eyes that I no longer see
My Lord He comes, and rips the veil
And shows me all the plans He has for me

And when the shadows fall around me and there is
no light to see
You shine on me
And when the path is dark and my road crumbles
at my feet
You shine on me

When darkness falls, like snow in winter
And buries all my hopes in frozen tears
My Lord He comes like the rising Sun
And melts away the ice that holds my fears

And when the shadows fall around me and there is
no light to see
You shine on me
And when the path is dark and my road crumbles
at my feet
You shine on me

When darkness grows like vines before me
And covers up the window of my soul
My Lord He comes like the harvest moon
His love shines through and mercy takes control

And when the shadows fall around me and there is
no light to see
You shine on me
And when the path is dark and my road crumbles
at my feet
You shine on me

Camp Christian Conference Center is a year-round facility on 323 acres that is open to all groups. Our focus is summer camps for children and youth. One of the camps we sponsor in addition to the camps for our youth and children is Camp OASIS-A Safe Place to Make Friends and Share Gifts. This benefit camp is for elementary age children living in Wilkinson County, Georgia, who would not have the opportunity to attend a camp otherwise.

For further information and ways you can help, please contact Kristne Bays. She is our church's contact person for the Gala.
